Saturday, September 29. 1705.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated October 2.

Rome, September 12.

A Consistory was held on Monday last, but no Promotion of Cardinals was made, as was expected. The same Day the Pope gave a private Audience to Cardinal Barberini, who discours'd to him upon the Differences between this Court and that of Savoy, and urg'd him to moderate the Pretensions of the Congregation of the Ecclesiastical Immunities, who insist rigidly upon whatever Privileges they lay claim to. Several Congregations of State have been held about the Difference with the Court of Vienna, which Difference 'tis not doubted Time and new Circumstances of Affairs may easily make up. In the mean while Signior Davia, late Nuncio at Vienna, being on his Return to his Bishoprick of Rimini, 'tis believ'd he will be promoted in the Nomination of Cardinals that 'tis daily expected will be made; and 'tis also conjectur'd that Signior Fieschi late Nuncio at the Court of France, will at the same time be promoted to that Dignity. We hear the Count de Lamberg, is remov'd from Lucca, to Miniato in the Territory of Tuscany.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated October 1.

Vienna, September 19. Yesterday the Emperor dispatch'd an Express to Count Wenzel Wratisslaw at Prague in Bohemia, with an Order for him to repair forthwith to Dresden, there to receive the Princes James and Constantine Sobieski, his Imperial Majesty having obtain'd of King Augustus of Poland, that those Princes shall be conducted to Gratz in Stria, where they are to be treated suitably to their Rank, but are to give their Parole not to go out of that Town without his Imperial Majesty's Leave. We have receiv'd Advice, that the 14th of this Month General Herbeville was to pass the Danube at Buda with his Troops, and that Prince Ragotski lay intrench'd at the Distance of some Leagues from Pest with the Army of Malecontents he commands, and seem'd determin'd to stand a Battle with General Herbeville. General Glockelsberg is on the March for Transilvania with the Body of Troops he commands. The French Ministers and Officers that are about Prince Ragotski, have us'd their utmost Endeavours to hinder the holding of the Diet of the Estates of Hungary which he had summon'd to meet at Lewentz, but in vain, and we hear those Estates are actually now assembled.

From the Leid. and Amst. Gaz. dated Oct. 1. and 2.

Madrid, Sept. 12. The Grandees continue to be discontented at the new Honour or Privilege the King has conferr'd upon the Prince de Tilly as Captain of his Guards; viz. that of sitting behind him on a Stool in his Chappel. It appears this Business will produce no light Consequences, for 2 other Captains of the Guards have laid down their Commissions, notwithstanding they might in their Turns have enjoy'd the same Privilege. The King has already nam'd 2 Noblemen to supply their Room, viz. the Count d' Aguilar and the Duke d' Ossuna. Barcelona being invested by the Enemy, 'tis very difficult to get Intelligence from that Place: We have no Advice yet that Trenches are open'd before it. The King will not go into the Field this Year, as he design'd, because the Motions of the Enemy by Land and Sea oblige him to stay here to send Orders wherever there may be occasion, and besides he has not Troops enow to act offensively. To Day an Express arriv'd from the Duke of Gandia, to acquaint the King that his Vassals of the Town of Gandia had promis'd to sacrifice their Lives and Fortunes in his Majesty's Service and in Defence of the Monarchy; that the Viceroy of Valencia was march'd with some Troops against the Malecontents of that Province who had fortified themselves in Denia; and that he had already taken from them a Mill defended by Intrenchments and other Works.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated October 3.

Madrid, September 16. The King persists in his Resolution to have the Captain of his Guards sit behind him in the Royal Chappel on a Stool; notwithstanding the Grandees murmur at it more and more, and forbear coming to that Chappel. His Majesty has given Order for all the Troops that are nearest Lerida, to repair thither forthwith; and a Regiment of Horse that was sent towards Valencia is likewise order'd to march that way, most of the Malecontents about Denia that rose in Arms, being reduc'd to Obedience, though that Town and Castle are still possess'd by Malecontents. The Duke of Montalto is remov'd from the Office of President of the Council of Arragon, and the Count d' Aguilar Councillor of State is put into his Place.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated October 1.

Amsterdam, Sept. 30. Letters from Malaga of the 1st Instant tell us the Garrison of Gibraltar was strengthening that Place with new Works; that 8 Days before the Artillery of the said Place was fir'd, and Fireworks let off, but for what occasion they could not learn. Letters from Madrid of the 11th of this Month say the Court had not receiv'd any News from Barcelona since the 31st of August; but had an Account that 40 Sail were detach'd from the Confederate Fleet, on what Design was not known; as also that many Places had declar'd for King Charles III. principally Tarragon, Manresa, and Agramont; and that all the Passages between Lerida and Barcelona, were secur'd by the Inhabitants of the Country that had declar'd for King Charles III.

Falmouth, Sept. 24. Yesterday pass'd by this Place, about 30 Sail of Ships bound for New-found-land and the West Indies, under Convoy of 3 Sail of Men of War; there put in also 4 Coasters from the Isle of Wight.

Dartmouth, Sept. 25. The Sunderland Man of War is now in Torbay, and 2 Dutch Men of War in Plymouth, which are appointed to go Convoys for Holland (as soon as the Wind shifts) to divers Merchant Ships laden from Exeter, together with several others bound Eastward.

Shields, Sept. 25. My last gave an Account of the Arrival of a Fleet of light Colliers in this Port, with 2 Men of War; this Fleet is lading, and will be ready to sail by the latter End of this Week: Several laden Ships sail'd within these few Days, without Convoy, Convoy, altho' we hear there are Privateers upon the Coast.

Yarmouth, Sept. 26. Yesterday came into these Roads about 22 Sail of light Colliers, with Her Majesty's Ship the Merlin; which with those here before, make between 30 and 40 Sail, bound to the Northward.

Harwich, Sept. 27. This Morning 40 Sail of light Colliers under Convoy of the Assistance, sail'd from hence to the Northward; and the Dolphin Packet-Boat sail'd with a Mail for Holland.

Edinburg, Sept. 22. Yesterday the Parliament rose; but the Act for Limitations on the Protestant Successor, the Act for a Triennial Parliament, and the Act for sending Ambassadors to foreign Treaties, were not touch'd.

AT the Theatre Royal in Drury-Lane, this present Saturday, being the 29th of September, will be presented, A Comedy, call'd, The Committee: or, The Faithful Irishman.
